James H. Casey, of Fourteenth street appeared before Alderman T. T. Mor-gan, of the Fifteenth ward, on Wedneslay evening, with his face besmeared with blood, the result of a quarrel with his wife, Mrs. Annie Carey. His mis-sion was to swear out a warrant for her arrest, and he told a tale of woe and misery to the alderman. He stated that his wife, who is an irritable wo-man, assaulted him with intent to kill by striking him a heavy blow on the head with a beer glass. While in the heat of anger she let drive with a flatiron, which struck her lord and master a blow which feiled him to the ground, where he lay unconscious for some The warrant was issued and Mrs. Casey brought into court to answer a charge of assault with intent to kill. She was bound over for her an pearance at court in the sum of $300 Mr. Casey is a cripple, and was but recently released from the county jail for selling liquor without a license. Will Be Renewed in Court This Morning-Hearing Testimony Before Judge Edwards in One of the Trespass Cases Against the Central Company-Verdicts in the Anglemoyer and Other Cases.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the plaintiff rested in the trespass suit of Estella Clayton against Hill to hear all of the testimony in the case before passing on the question. He directed the defense to proceed with its case with the privilege of renewing its motion for a non suit when all the testimony was heard. The defense closed just before court adjourned and the motion for the nonsuit will be made this morning. The testimony of the defense was to the effect that if Mrs. Clayton had used have occurred.

Before Judge Edwards the case of C. H. Thomas against R. T. Post was tried. Post employed Thomas to drive his team, and for two months' labor paid him $27. Thomas claimed $70 and ued to recover the balance due. The defense was that Thomas made an agreement with Post to work on shares

The action for damages of Patrick Kearney against the Central Ruilroad of New Jersey was next put on trial. It is claimed by the plaintiff, who owns a property on the bank of the Lackswanna river, which property has a frontage on Water street, that the de-fendant company obstructed the channel of the river, causing the water to back up during freshets and overflow his land. It was inundated in Decemher, 1888, and February, 1891, and a portion of his land washed away. this he wants damages. Mr. Kearney is represented by Attorney A. A. Chase, Senator M. E.
